

THE PARAMOUNT THEATRE

The Paramount Theatre is proud to announce this special event during Black History Month 2020 for 11th Graders in Austin ISD

LINER NOTES: Music of the Movement

A Live Musical Journey Through the Music of the Civil Rights Era

In partnership with the Anti-defamation League and AISD, Paramount Education is proud to offer this programming in alignment with the “Facing History and Ourselves” curriculum.

Liner Notes: Music of the Movement, is an educational, multi-generational, and interactive journey through the music inspired by the Civil Rights Movement during the 50s and 60s. The show features songs that will get your students dancing on their feet like Ray Charles “What’d I Say,” protest songs like “A Change Is Gonna Come,” and spirituals like “This Little Light of Mine.”

Always striving to care for its audience, Liner Notes revisits an adverse time in our history with authenticity, thoughtfulness and integrity, drawing connections and examining the intersections with the adversity prevalent today. What have we learned? What do we still need to learn from the music and the artists using art as activism today? The ensemble cultivates a safe space where the audience can explore music on a deeper level to make meaningful connections.

The Corner Store Jazz quintet plays LIVE with spoken word, hip-hop dance, amazing jazz and hip-hop vocals, all in front of a multimedia design that includes album artwork and original video design. Over the course of the performance, liner notes are read from the original albums, including the artistic statements of John Coltrane and Sam Cooke.
