DON’T LET THE PIGEON DRIVE THE BUS!

THE MUSICAL!

MARCH 1-3, 2020

MOKC

THE PARAMOUNT THEATRE
Psst. Over here! Yeah... you! Why don't you come a little closer?

TOO CLOSE!!

So... you are going to let me do the activity guide, right?

PLEASE?

Fine. Who needs dreams anyway?

I'll be your best friend!

LET ME DO THE ACTIVITY GUIDE!!!!!
LEARN TO DRAW THE PIGEON!

1. Near the top of the box, make a circle for the Pigeon's head.

2. Make a smaller circle inside the first one for the Pigeon's eye. Place the eyeball inside the small circle - this is the most important part of the drawing because it shows how the Pigeon is feeling!

3. Make a sideways letter "M" for the Pigeon's beak. (If you'd rather make a sideways letter "W," that's fine with me.)

4. Draw two straight lines down for the Pigeon's neck, and two lines across for his collar. (This is always more fun with sound effects!)

5. Now comes the famous Mo Willems "circ-angle" for the Pigeon's body. A circ-angle is a circle that changes its mind halfway through and decides to become a triangle.

6. Draw two straight lines down from the body for the Pigeon's legs.

7. Make three letter "V"s. The first two are upside-down for the Pigeon's feet, and the third one is one its side for the wing. Great job! That's an awesome Pigeon!

Practice drawing the Pigeon below:
The Pigeon is hungry for his favorite food:
HOTDOGS! How many hotdogs does the Pigeon have?

How many TOTAL hotdogs does the Pigeon have?

The Duckling is hungry too! How many cookies does the Duckling have?

If the Duckling shares a cookie with the Pigeon, how many cookies will be left?

THE PIGEON WANTS A MAZE!
Help the Pigeon collect all of his food and friends on the way to the bus!
EMOTIONS

Draw lines connecting the images to the words that describe what the Pigeon is feeling. Can't decide? Write your own word!

Sad
Dreamy
Mad
Happy
Shy
Full
Tired
Surprised

My life is an emotional rollercoaster!
Don't worry, I'm cute no matter how you draw me!

In the space below, come up with a new story of something the Pigeon wants to do. Have the Pigeon try to convince us with different reasons, showing different emotions in each box. To get you started, we’ve added some images of the Pigeon and some speech bubbles that need your words!
ABOUT THE SHOW

Mo Willems, Creator
The creative force behind this show and the Pigeon book series is author/illustrator Mo Willems. After starting out writing and animating on Sesame Street, he wrote his first book for children - Don't Let the Pigeon Drive the Bus! Since then he has written more than 50 books and won numerous awards. Mo draws all the time with his own family at home and encourages everyone - and that means grownups and children - to imagine and doodle. In 2019, Mo Willems was named the Kennedy Center's first-ever Education Artist-in-Residence. The show you saw today was developed during the residence.

The Kennedy Center, Producers
The John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts is the United States National Cultural Center, located in Washington, D.C. and opened in 1971. It produces a wide range of theater, dance, ballet, and popular music performances. To learn more, visit: kennedy-center.org

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS
After you watch the show, talk about it with your friends and family!

1. It takes a lot of responsibility to drive a bus. What does it mean to be responsible? When was a time that you demonstrated responsibility? How did it make you feel?
2. Sometimes Pigeon has to do things he doesn't want to do, like go to sleep. Why is it important to get a good night's sleep? What happens to your body and your mood when you don't get enough sleep?
3. Pigeon gets frustrated when he isn't allowed to drive the bus. Can you think of a time when you were frustrated? How did you handle it?
4. What was each character's "thing"? What is your "thing"? Why?
5. How was the musical different from the book, and why do you think it was different?
The Paramount Theatre was built 104 years ago in 1915. Back then, Congress Avenue was a dirt road and the automobile was a new invention. As one of the first examples of early theatre architecture, the Paramount has been bringing Austin families together for generations. When you visit the theatre, you enter a place that feels exciting and welcoming. From your seat, you can almost reach out and touch the performers on stage! Many famous people have performed at the Paramount. From magician Harry Houdini to the premier of the original Batman movie, the Paramount and its audiences have seen it all over the past 100 years...here's to the next century!

Paramount Education

We inspire the intellect and imagination of young people by providing opportunities to experience, perform, and learn through the arts. We can’t wait to see you again at our theatre or in our school programs! Paramount Education programs are made possible through generous donations from our community. If you are interested in finding out more or want to make a contribution, please reach out to Natalie Seeboth at nseeboth@austintheatre.org or 512.233.0121. Thank you!
